The payment of the purchase price within the agreed deadline shall constitute an essential component of this contract. The payment of the purchase price within the agreed deadline shall constitute an essential component of this contract. Therefore, this contract shall be automatically cancelled ex lege, with no obligation to request the payment of the purchase price, if the buyer fails to pay the purchase price within the agreed deadline and if after the expiry of the deadline the seller does not immediately notify the buyer that it requires the fulfilment thereof. If the purchase price is not paid within the agreed deadlines but the seller chooses to retain the contract in force in accordance with paragraph two of Article 104 of the Code of Obligations and demand its performance, the seller shall be entitled to charge the buyer the applicable statutory default interest.
