Binding bids, together with the binding accompanying declarations regarding the availability of funds, shall be valid at a minimum until 13 June 2022.

Bidders that are foreign legal entities must attach an extract from the relevant register in which the bidder is entered as a legal entity (certified translation), whereby the extract may not be more than 30 days old.

Bids shall be submitted in Slovene or English. Each bidder may submit only one bid. If a bidder submits more than one bid, all of its bids shall be excluded.

G. Bid bond

The Seller shall accept binding offers from bidders that pay a security deposit by no later than 13 April 2022 to the Seller's account at UniCredit banka d.d., no. The bid bond will be returned (without interest) to bidders whose bids are assessed by the BAMC as unsuitable or are not selected by the BAMC.

2.2. Due diligence

Bidders shall have the opportunity to conduct due diligence of the documentation regarding the Claims that are the subject of the sale (hereinafter: Documentation). The due diligence review may be carried out every business day from 14 March 2022 to 2 pm on 13 April 2022. Due diligence shall be performed electronically 24 hours a day. Bidders may submit written questions during that time. Written answers to the questions of any individual bidder that is party to this part of the procedure shall be sent to all other participants.

The condition for carrying out due diligence is the signing of the Non-Disclosure Agreement to be submitted by the Seller to interested bidders at their written request.

The Seller reserves the right to deny any individual bidder access to the Documentation, without providing a reason, or to prevent access to specific information.

During the due diligence review, bidders shall be given the opportunity to review a draft agreement on the sale of the Claims and to provide feedback regarding that agreement. The sales agreement shall be concluded in the form of a directly enforceable notarial deed or in another form, if so defined by the law or if so required by the Seller at its own discretion.

3. Opening of binding bids

The opening of binding bids shall not be public. The Seller shall adopt a decision regarding the appropriateness of binding bids received within four (4) business days following the expiry of the deadline for the submission of bids. The Seller shall not be obliged to explain that decision.

The Seller reserves the right to call on bidders to improve or supplement their bids, or to continue individual negotiations with all or only certain bidders. A potential call by the BAMC for bidders to improve their bids during the procedure shall not be deemed the rejection of those bids according to the second paragraph of Article 29 of the Obligations Code, meaning those bids shall remain valid until the end of the procedure or until the improvement of a bid by an individual bidder, with which that bidder shall expressly agree.

The Seller reserves the right not to select any bidder in the public tender procedure, i.e. to reject all submitted bids, and shall not be obliged to enter into any agreement or contract whatsoever with any bidder with respect to their participation in the Claims sale procedure.

4. Conclusion of agreement

The Seller is expected (but shall not be bound) to select the bidder that submitted an appropriate and most favourable bid (hereinafter: the Selected Bidder) and conclude an agreement on the sale and assignment of the Claims with that bidder.

A bidder shall be selected on the basis of the following criteria: highest final price offered for the purchase of the Seller's Claims against the Companies, payment method and any requirements regarding the content of the agreement on the sale of the Claims. The assessment of the suitability of bids shall be at the Seller's discretion. If several bidders offer the same price, negotiations shall be held with each bidder individually using the same criterion as used for selection of the bid.

The security deposit shall be included in the consideration and deemed to be the Selected Bidder's down payment following the conclusion of the agreement on the sale of the Claims. The agreement shall also include legal provisions regarding any consents from competent authorities required for the validity of the agreement.

The selected bidder shall subsequently provide additional information pursuant to the provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Act. The selected bidder shall provide data regarding the bank account from which the consideration will be transferred (if the bank account is not open at a bank headquartered in the EU, this shall be subject to an additional decision by the Seller's committee on the approval of the sale of the Claims).

The Seller and the Selected Bidder shall conclude an agreement, at the Seller's request, no later than within 15 days of the notice of selection of bidder. If the bidder selected by the Seller fails to enter into an agreement, the Seller shall be entitled to retain the security deposit (i.e. the security deposit shall not be returned to the bidder). In this case, the Seller shall have the right (but shall not be obliged) to enter into an agreement with the bidder who submitted the second or next most favourable binding bid, without repeating the collection of bids for the purchase of the Claims.

Bid bonds shall be returned in a lump sum (without interest), within three business days following the expiry of deadline for the signing of the agreement on the sale of the Claims, to bidders whose bids are deemed inappropriate or who are not selected by the Seller, provided that bidders submit a written statement indicating the account to which the bid bond is to be returned. If a bidder does not submit a declaration, the bid bond shall be returned (without interest) to the account from which it was paid, on the seventh business day following the expiration of the deadline for the conclusion of an agreement on the sale of the Claims. In the case referred to in this paragraph, the bid bond shall not have the nature of a down payment, and unselected bidders shall not be entitled to request the repayment of double the amount of the bid bond or to file a claim for potential damages if they were not selected.

The Claims shall be transferred in accordance with the agreement following the full payment of consideration. The timely settlement of consideration shall be an essential component of the agreement. The buyer shall pay all taxes and costs (including any notary fees) associated with the transfer of the Claims. The Claims shall be sold on an 'as-is' basis, where the Seller's Claims shall be transferred to the buyer in their entirety, together with appertaining fees and ancillary rights, to the fullest extent permitted by the law. The Seller shall only guarantee the existence of the Claims, and not the existence of collateral or the recoverability thereof.

The agreement shall also include a 'top-up' clause (payment of the difference between paid consideration and higher consideration in the event of a subsequent sale), a 're-sale' clause (under which the buyer shall not sell the Claims to related parties as set out in Article 13 of the ZUKSB for a period of five (5) years and, in the event of a breach thereof, the buyer shall be obliged to pay the Seller a contractual penalty amounting to 50% of the consideration), and a provision that the Seller may publish information regarding the sale of the Claims and the identity of the buyer.

If the buyer of the Claims is a foreign legal entity, it shall provide the Seller with a unique identification number (registration number) assigned by the Business Register of Slovenia (AJPES) for purposes of drafting the sales agreement, or a unique personal identification number (EMŠO) if the buyer is a foreign natural person.

5. Other

Bidders shall bear the costs of their participation in this public tender procedure, i.e. procedure for the sale of the Claims, as well as all associated costs, regardless of the outcome of the public tender. The Seller reserves the right to amend the procedure and conditions of the sale of the Claims.

The tender procedure shall be conducted in Slovene. The Seller may also publish or submit specific documents in another language (e.g. English).

By participating in this public tender procedure, bidders shall be deemed to agree with the conditions of that procedure.

6. Right to suspension and exclusion of Seller's liability for damages

The Seller reserves the right to change the planned course, steps or other elements of the procedure at any time and without explanation, and may also suspend the bid collection process, sales and/or negotiations procedures, and shall bear no liability whatsoever in this regard. Bidders may not file any claims against the Seller as a result of the aforementioned actions. The Seller shall not be held liable for any damages whatsoever.

The Seller reserves the right not to conclude an agreement with any bidder.
